Summary

Utilizing my knowledge, experience, and skills acquired through studying Engineering, Law, and Political Science, and being an aspirant for Civil Services, I have been educating Social Science to the 'Future of India' for six years.

My teaching and content creation experience includes working in prominent schools, coaching institutes, and ed-tech platforms.

Additionally, earlier in my career, I worked on various projects for the Government of India, Madhya Pradesh Police, and an international BPO in different capacities for a few months.
