Professional Summary

I have good command on current affairs as I am aspirant of UPSC, I can tailor good and understandable content for students which is directly co-related with syllabus and help them to answer writing and understanding on current social, economical, political issues. My content may also help students to develop their own opinion. It will help them to solve the Prelims questions of other subject also because I used to co-related all subjects (geography, history, polity, economy, science and statics) with current affairs mention in syllabus.
